Spanish Affairs.

For some years past Spain, once so proud, haughty and powerful, has been a very hot-bed of sedition, anarchy and revolution. The eyes of all Europe, nay of Christendom, have been turned toward that fruitful but unhappy land, with a kind of Micawberish anxiety to ascertain what was next most likely to turn up. Wrecked and tormented on the one hand by internal dissentions, the work of Carlists, Legitimists, and Republicans, and on the other by wanton extravagance and shameless immoralities on the part of those high in authority, the once powerful Spanish kingdom has gone down in the scale of nations, until it now occupies scarcely more than a third-rate position in the family of European States. The scandalous conduct of Spanish rulers for the past half century or more, and particularly in the person of the present ex Queen Isabella, has not only disgusted the Spanish people, and caused them in a measure to be ashamed of their country, but it has probably done more to bring the monarchical system of government into contempt and ridicule, and to spread the principles of republicanism throughout the whole of Europe, than any other known cause. The Spaniards, like the French, are heartily sick of the pomp and pride of royalty, and would seem to be firmly resolved upon giving republicanism a fair and impartial trial. That the Spanish throne was made too hot for King Amadeus to sit upon with any degree of comfort, was only what might have been expected. Because the Spaniards grew weary of their faulty Queen, and cast her aside as utterly unworthy their respect or confidence, it did not follow that they would bear with patience the infliction of a foreign Prince upon the vacated throne, however worthy in other respects he might be to wear the Spanish crown. Therefore the news received the other day that King Amadeus had voluntarily abdicated the Spanish throne, and had taken his departure for the home of his childhood, in sunny Italy, was an event not altogether unlooked for. He was to all intents and purposes a foreigner in the eyes of the mass of the Spanish people, and what could be more natural than that they should view with distrustful jealousy the act of the Cortes which placed such a person in the position of chief ruler of the nation? That King Amadeus discharged the high and responsible duties of his office with dignity and ability, and with an apparent earnest desire to promote the happiness and welfare of his people, is not questioned even by the most ultra of his opponents; but the consideration of his foreign birth seems to have outweighed all other considerations, and he had the good sense to see that nothing he could do would reconcile the people to his rule, and he therefore wisely resolved to vacate a position that could bring neither credit to himself nor advantage to his people. The Spaniards are now about to try what they can do for themselves under a republican form of government. That they will fail in the attempt, is the generally expressed opinion. The French have tried the experiment several times, but have on each occasion gradually drifted back into the monarchical system. Again they are trying the experiment, but how far they will succeed remains to be seen. The French are a much more enlightened people than the Spaniards, and if the former have not yet attained to that high standard of political and intellectual growth to fit them for the successful management of republican institutions, it can scarcely be expected that the Spaniards will be more successful in their present attempt than the French have been in their past efforts. The neighboring European monarchical governments view the present crisis in Spanish affairs with an apparent cool indifference, which is doubtless the result of an innate consciousness that the republic will be of short-lived duration, and that having satisfied themselves of their own incapability of working out a system of government, they will quietly settle down again under a monarchy, and become a wiser and better people, as a result of their enlarged experience.

Imbued with the inspiriting influences of the season and believing that there is a "glorious summer" ahead of us A. B. GRAY has made arrangements to receive monthly consignments of all descriptions of Dry Goods. The Prince Alfred on her last trip brought the first of these shipments, comprising a very choice assortment of the newest dress materials, black silks, wool shirtings, shawls, etc., and such a variety of general goods as makes his stock complete in all departments. An inspection of the new goods is invited. Government street, 11th February, 1873. *

THAT PORTFOLIO.—As there is considerable discussion going on at present about the creating of new portfolios, the undersigned is prepared to make them in any quantity. Also, Blank Books and every description of Binding and Ruling done. R. T. WILLIAMS, at Messrs. T. N. Hibben & Co's. *

Bitter Waters of Pullna, Saxon Mineral Waters of Pullna, in Bohemia, also Wines and Liquors for sale at the Red House, Yates Street by J. P. Pierre, Agent. The Bitter Mineral Waters of Pullna deserve to maintain the first rank amongst all the bitter mineral waters of this sort. There are hardly 70 years passed that one began to make use of them, hardly 40 years that one for long countries know them, and yet they have already outwinged by far, on account of their excellent capital effects, other more weakly operating bitter mineral waters, so that they not only enjoy an excellent reputation in all the countries of Europe, but that also the rest of the parts of the world praise their excellent sanative virtue. According to the experience of the physicians and to the manner in which the medical establishments make use of them the laxmittes which are most fit for the use of the bitter mineral waters of Pullna are. Inflammations, inflammable irritations, orgasms and congestions, catarrhs both of the organs of respiration and the apparatus of digestion, obstruction, worms; maladies of the liver and the gall-bladder, of the hemorrhoidal, vein, complaints of pregnancy, excess for pulence, illnesses of children, the consequences of intermittent fever, in all cases when a moderately purging physic is profitable, and besides this for the use before and after other mineral water cures, and against disorders of the mind. The dose to be given is fixed: by the infirmity, the age, the strength of the patient, the intended purpose of the cure, and consists from a full wine-glass, till to a bottle every day. With children and persons sensible of them little doses are sufficient. The waters keep operative and unchanged for years. Administration of the bitter mineral waters of the community at Pullna near Brüx in Bohemia.

VALENTINE'S DAY.—Associated with it are sentiments thoroughly laved with real purity of purpose and meaning. Like everything sublime, the ridiculous is but the next step. We have a keen conception of both phases of the meaning, and have tried to adapt ourselves to this interesting occasion, by securing an assortment so varied that its effects will either surfeit the receiver with the profuseness of poetry and tinsel, or make both donor and receiver inseparable for life. We venture to caution those who send the comic ones to be merciful, and those who receive them to exercise forbearance.—T. N. HIBBEN & Co. *

Memory presides over the past, Fell's Coffee over the present. The first lives in a rich temple hung with glorious trophies, and lined with tombs, but Fell's Coffee has but one shrine and that is every breakfast table. Its aroma walks the earth like a spirit and can be found for sale at every respectable dealers in British Columbia. Beware of spurious imitations. ly *

Amendment Bill. Report adopted; Read a third time and passed.

LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY PRIVILEGES BILL.

This bill was taken up in Committee of the Whole. Mr. Hughes in the chair.

Bill passed without amendments and is as follows:

An Act to define some of the Privileges of the Members of the Legislative Assembly

Her Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of British Columbia, enacts as follows:—

1. This Act shall not exclude or be deemed to exclude any rights, immunities, or privileges of Members of the Legislative Assembly not herein expressly recognized or enacted

2. No action at law or other civil proceeding shall be brought against any Member of the Legislative Assembly for any words spoken by him in the Legislative Assembly.

3. No action at law or other civil proceeding shall be brought against any such Member for introducing into or laying before such Assembly (without actual and express malice) any documents or paper

4. No action at law or other civil proceeding shall be brought against any such Member, or against any person for, by reason, or on account of the printing or publication of any documents or papers, printed or published by order of the Legislative Assembly or the Speaker thereof, and no suit in equity shall be brought to restrain the publication or printing of any such papers or documents.

5. No such Member shall be compellable to serve as a Juror during a period commencing at forty days before, and ending at forty days after any Session of the Legislative Assembly; and during such period no such Member shall be liable to arrest on any civil process.

6. This Act may be cited as "The Legislative Assembly Privileges Act, 1873."

Report was adopted and the Bill passed a third reading.

NEW WESTMINSTER COURT HOUSE.

Hon. Mr. Beaven laid before the House correspondence on the construction of the New Westminster Court House, and asked for by the House.

ROAD TAX.

Hon. Dr. Ash presented a return of all sums of money collected for Road Tax in 1872

FREE TRADE IN LAW.

Mr. Humphreys moved the second reading of an Act respecting practioners in the County Court and other inferior Courts. He was sure the bill would not interfere with legal gentlemen.

Bill read a second time and committed, Mr. Hughes in the chair.

1. From and after the passing of this Act any person shall be entitled to appear in any County Court, or in the Court of any Stipendiary Magistrate or Justice of the Peace, as the Attorney and Advocate of any proceedings in such Courts or any of them, notwithstanding such person shall not have been duly admitted as an Attorney or Barrister by the Supreme or any other Court of British Columbia, any rule, order, statute, or other law to the contrary notwithstanding.

Hon. Mr. Walkem moved to amend Clause 1, by inserting a clause providing that the bill shall have effect in districts of the Mainland only. He stated that practitioners have large fees to pay; he would not refer to expenses of education, &c.

Mr. Bunster wanted it applied to his district.

Hon Mr. DeCosmos considered that if it were a good law it should be applied to the Province. [Hear, hear.]

Mr. McCreight would take occasion to state that it would not be just to the profession to admit hybrid practitioners; there should not be one class for the Supreme Court and one for the inferior Courts. He referred to the bill just passed the House. Much injury might be done the public by the present measure, and it would not tend to the administration of justice.

Mr. Smithe moved to exempt Victoria City District from the provisions of the law.

Mr Humphreys remarked there were no laws to protect engineers for instance and why should lawyers be protected as a class? He regretted the bill did not embrace the Supreme Courts.

Mr. Robson would support both of the amendments. The legal gentlemen ought to be satisfied with their superior abilities over others who might appear against them, and by opposing the amendment they would tacitly acknowledging their inferiority to pettifoggers or others Any poor man ought to be able to act as his own lawyer, or have any or the best he can get. He did not look on the measure as exactly free trade in law. The County Courts were about to be extended over the country.

Mr. Booth never could see the justice of hedging round the legal profession. He was certain the lawyer with his brains ought certainly to be able to protect himself against any pettifogging lawyer

Mr. Smithe's amendent was lost 13 to 6.

Hon. Attorney General's amendment was lost, and the clause passed without amendment.

Clause 2. Hon. Mr. Walkem moved a clause that rules and regulations of court governing the legal profession with regard to character and conduct, shall apply also in above.

Mr. Smithe moved a clause similar in effect, giving power to County Court Judges, Magistrates, J P's etc. to refuse audience to persons guilty of gross misconduct, and shall generally, have the same control over unprofessional persons as he has over professional persons.

Mr. McCreight maintained there should be some rules or regulations to govern in this matter.

Mr. Robson opposed the last amendment; magistrates could, if they should so wish, render the bill a nullity, and what could the people in the district do?

Mr. Robertson said the bill admits non-professional persons to the privileges of professional, and the House proposes that they shall not submit to the same rules and regulations governing the profession. He illustrated the cases which might take place in a court were any class of persons to be allowed to practice.

Hon. Mr. DeCosmos said the class of persons allowed to practice should at least be men of good character, who could be trusted with money, etc. He believed the amendments were in the right direction.

Amendment carried.

Clause 3, title clause, passed

Bill was reported complete, with amendments.

Report was adopted; bill read a third time and passed.

ATTACHMENT BILL.

The bill was deferred (second reading) until to-morrow.

Mr. Bunster objected to discharging the Orders of the Day.

[Bill is lost.]

MINERAL ORDINANCE AMENDMENT ACT.

This bill was resumed in committee of the whole, Mr. Saul in the chair.

Hon. Attorney General observed that the bill was not what he had expected at all. He would do away with the licensing system altogether, and throw the lands open for pre-emption, as in the case of other lands. He would move to strike out the first clause of the bill, and submitted in lieu thereof, that no prospecting license for coal be given, notwithstanding anything to the contrary.

Hon. Dr. Ash and the committee generally, believed in the step proposed, to sell coal lands. Hitherto satisfactory title could not be had, and it was detrimental to the interests of the country It was believed that $5 an acre was not too much. Hon. Dr. Ash referred to the valuable information which will be forthcoming very shortly, and prepared by the Dominion geologist, Mr. Richardson

Mr. Robson wanted to see discoverers of coal protected by some provision.

Hon Mr. DeCosmos descanted upon the extensive coal fields on the Island. The true policy was to sell them out; they had tried long enough the old principle of locking up the land; now they should try a new principle.

Mr. Holbrook gave a chapter on the coal lands (and ile) of the Mainland. The hon. gentleman claimed that discoverers should have some protection. He approved of the principle to sell the lands.

Hon. Mr. Beaven believed it good policy to sell the lands by auction; prospectors would have the same protection as the discoverer of agricultural lands.

Mr. Todd believed they should provide that discoverers should have the right of purchase over any other persons.

Mr. Barnston also thought that the discoverers should be protected.

Hon. Chief Commissioner said that if a discoverer were aware of the value of coal lands he may have found, he could purchase them at auction. He need not disclose to any one the discovery.

Mr. Booth also believed in the policy of selling the lands, but he thought there should be some provision for encouraging prospecting.

Mr. Robertson observed that the prospector who might be a person without means, is liable to be brought into collision with the person with large means, who would outbid the discoverer. He would suggest that in the first place to give an exclusive right to prospect for a time, say six months, secondly a right to purchase, &c. [Hear, hear.]

Mr. Holbrook supported, and took occasion to say he had seen coal oil which was found on the Mainland.

Hon. Attorney General had prepared amendments to meet some of the views of the senior member for Esquimalt.

Amendment to clause was carried.

Clause 2 was amended by striking out, and moving in lieu thereof, that on and after 21st July, 1873, coal lands may be sold for not less than $1 per acre, as may be by the Lieutenant-Governor determined.

3 Provides that prospectors shall pay down a dollar per acre; original clause was struck out

4. Coal lands now held under prospecting license shall after the passing of the act be continously worked until Crown Grant be issued; if the work be not carried on the Chief Commissioner may cancel such prospecting license.

Hon. gentlemen thought proper notice should be given.

The hon. Chief Commissioner said that whilst agreeing with the hon. Attorney General in many respects on the question he thought the proposed clause might be somewhat modified advantageously.

Mr. Robson did not think the House had any right to legislate restrospectively, and thus deprive parties holding lands under the old act of 1869 of certain rights which were obtained by it.

The hon. Attorney General stigmatized the act of 1869 as one of the worst on the statute book; it did not mention one word about how much work was to be done by persons holding licenses for the purpose of coal mining; the clause he wished to introduce would insist upon a fair amount of work being done and thus prevent a sort of "dog in the manger" system, to which the old act opened the doors Lands under the old act could be locked up and the Government had not positively one single saving clause to prevent it.

Mr McCreight thought that the House had power to legislate as to what any party holding a mining license ought to do to fairly work the land granted to him for a specific purpose. He believed this to be the true meaning of the old act, and thus prevent a man becoming a mere squatter and doing nothing to attain the objects for which the license was granted to him.

Mr. Robertson moved an amendment giving the party who might be deprived of his license by the Chief Commissioner power to appeal to arbitration, which might nullify the decision of the Chief Commissioner.

Carried.

The Hon. Premier objected to clause 6, which says that it shall be lawful for the Lieutenant-Governor in Council to resume possession of such a portion of any land held under pre-emption or Crown grant by any person, as may be necessary to afford to the proprietors of any mine, communication with the sea shore, or any river, &c, together with a block of land not exceeding five acres at the terminus of such line of communication.

Mr. Robertson replying, said it entirely rested to say whether it would be fair or not with the Lieutenant-Governor in Council, and he did not know of anybody more fit to see to the maintenance of rights of present owners than the Lieutenant-Governor in Council.

Mr. Holbrook took the same view of the case as the hon. the Premier, the clause would be unjust to private owners of land

Mr. Barnston was also opposed to the clause as it stood, he would like to know what right a man had to come on to his land and claim, through the Government, a right of way through the length or breadth of his property, besides the additional five acres at the terminus. A private company, who happened to find coal, was a very different thing to a Railway Co, the latter was generally a public good and everybody derived benefit from it in some way or another, but a coal company was an individual affair and had no such equivalent claims upon property holders as the public benefactor. He was strongly opposed to this power being given to outsiders, and quoted many cases in which it would be a great injustice to the present owners of land to allow the clause to pass.

Mr. Robertson would move an amendment to the clause, which would take the responsibility of deeming when it would be right to resume possession of any Crown grant &c., from off the shoulders of the Lieutenant-Governor in Council.

The hon. Attorney General opposed the clause strongly; coal mining might be a public boon, but it was farming. He was very much opposed to the principle the clause proposed to establish; it would be excessively unfair to farmers, or any private individuals, to take their lands from them simply for the benefit of a coal company. The farmer or any other man might place a value upon his land for many reasons, which he alone could discern in the future, but which he knew perfectly well he could never obtain before any arbitration in the world. The House had no right to force the man to part with the land; the farmer might just as well claim a portion of and a right of way through a coal company's lands, for the purpose of shipping his wheat; the idea was preposterous, and the clause was much too severe to inflict upon private individuals. The "right of way" even it exists in the old Act usually without the roadway itself never ought in any Act to have been given, but it would be greater wrong to try now to carry it out to a greater extent, and if an error had been made in former legislation, it was their bounden duty now to correct it, and not to increase it. This bill should have been introduced as a private bill, to meet a special case which was really under contemplation.

The committee reported progress and asked leave to sit again.

House then adjourned till 7:30, p.m.

EVENING SESSION.

The House met at 7:30, p.m.

MINERAL AMENDMENT BILL.

Committee took up the debate at section 6, Mr. Saul in the chair.

The clause as amended by the hon. senior member for Esquimalt, so as to make the question of granting rights of way and compensation for same, subject to the arbitrators' decision, said arbitrators to be appointed by the parties concerned, was then passed.

Section 7 was also introduced by Mr Robertson, and disallows to the party cutting or constructing the right of roadway by means of the conveyance referred to in section 6, the ownership of any minerals which he may come in contact with. Carried.

Section 8 provides for the appointment of arbitrators in case they are found to be necessary to decide any point between the two parties as to compensation. Carried.

Section 9 alludes to the duties and contingencies of the office of an arbitrator, which also passed.

Section 10 provides for the appointment of an arbitrator in case of the death of one agreed upon in the first place.

Sections 11 to 21 all provide for exceptional cases of arbitration, such as one of the arbitrators refusing to act, or one of them dying, or becoming incapable, or neglecting his duty etc.

The remaining three clauses of the bill passed.

Committee rose and reported progress. Report adopted, and bill read a third time.

VICTORIA AND ESQUIMALT RAILWAY BILL.

Mr. McCreight moved the second reading of the bill, which is a private one. The hon. gentleman courted a full discussion of the bill, and said that it was desirous that the passage of the bill should in no way incommode the construction of the C. P. R. The bill was based upon the supposition that Esquimalt would be the terminus of the C. P. R., and it was desirable that Victoria should be connected with Esquimalt as early as possible, and that it was hoped that time would not be lost in rendering Victoria in a position as quickly as possible to derive a benefit from the C.P.R.

Mr. Bunster moved that the bill be read this day six months. The bill was a most extraordinary one, the railway had no terminus and no starting point, and there was nothing at all practical about it.

The Hon. Premier said that he had had no opportunity afforded him to read the bill until this very evening. He was in favor of granting to a company of gentlemen the right of constructing the railroad, he saw no reason why they should not have the right granted to them by the Legislature; the only objection was that alluded to by his friend the hon. member for Victoria City, the one regarding the construction of the C. P. R He believed the terminus of that railroad was settled upon for Esquimalt, but he did not believe in such tender feelings towards the C. P. R. Co., such feelings he had no doubt would very soon be changed directly the construction began, he looked upon the Canadian Pacific Company as no hing more than a body of speculators, and he really saw no reason why a party of gentlemen should not have a right to construct a railway in any part of the Province. He thought the bill ought to be passed, but he did not wish to see the provisions touching so tenderly the interests of the Canadian Pacific allowed to remain in; they were superfluous. He thought the motion of his hon. colleague was a mistake. He would vote for the bill, although he was inclined to think that the Act of last year would set it aside; he would do it, however, upon principle, and did not wish to see this unthinking tenderness for the C. P. R., encouraged, nor did he think there was any occasion for it at all.

The Hon. Chief Commissioner did not see the motive of the amendment of the hon. junior member for Victoria District. He thought it would be an erroneous step to take without a good and sufficient reason; he would like to see the country traversed by many railways, and would ask the hon. junior member for Victoria district to explain his amendment.

Mr. Booth was in favor of supporting any enterprise such as that of a proposed railway, or anything else calculated to promote the welfare of the country.

Mr. Holbrook did not think that the proposed railway would interfere with the C. P. R., for he did not think the terminus of the latter would be anywhere near Esquimalt, (laughter). The C. P. R., would be sure to bring the line the shortest way and the one which was likely to pay them best. It was an absurd mistake for the Victoria people to ask the railway people to bring the line by about 150 miles a longer route just to amuse them, (laughter). It was too ridiculous to imagine that the Canadian Pacific Co., would entertain the notion of the Esquimalt route, with such an advantageous line as that down the Fraser valley on the cards. (Laughter.)

Mr Bunster found no one to support his amendment, and the bill passed its second reading, and the House went into committee upon it. Mr. Cogan in the chair, Mr. Bunster declining the honor.

Mr. Bunster proposed to add an amendment to clause 1, stating that the terminus of the railway shall be at Craigflower and at Johnson street, Victoria City, (near his brewery, if possible.)

The hon. Premier sincerely hoped his hon. colleague would not waste the time of the House with such amendments, and went on to quote authority that the termini of railways elsewhere were located where the companies might think fit, so long as they were situated within the named places in the Act.

The hon. Provincial Secretary said that he thought it due the House that the hon. senior member for Victoria City should state that it was really the intention of the gentlemen named in the act to build the railway. He did not believe in granting them the right if there were no intention on their part to build, but simply an intention in after having got the power, to sell their franchise to the Canadian Pacific.

Mr. McCreight really had no knowledge of their intentions. He could only judge from acts, and if they did not grant any wrong, there could be no harm in legislating upon their intentions whatever they might be. The bill had been well considered in committee, and it was the duty of the House to see that they did not give the company power to do mischief.

Mr. Booth said that by reference to late bills passed in Canada and elsewhere it would be found that the terminii were never definitely settled in an act empowering a railway company to construct.

Mr. Bunster stigmatized the bill as a mere piece of machinery for raising money, he did not believe the company ever meant to construct at all.

His amendment was then lost, and the clause passed as it stands.

Clauses 2, 3, and 4 which refer to legal documents, passed, also the following clauses:

5. The number of Directors shall be not less than six or more than ten, and the said George James Findlay, Ebenezer Gunning Gracini, Robert Ker, Leopold Lowenberg, James Arnold Raymur, John Herbert Turner, Thomas Lett Stahlschmidt, and William Curtis Ward shall be, and are hereby constituted a board of directors of the said company.

6. The capital stock of the company shall be $150,000, to be divided into 1,500 shares of $100 each, which amount shall be raised by persons hereinbefore named, and such other persons and corporations as may become shareholders in such stock, and the money so raised shall be applied in the first place towards the payment of all fees, expenses and disbursements, for procuring the passing of this Act, and for making surveys, plans and estimates connected with the undertaking, and all the rest and remainder of such money shall be applied towards the making, completing and repairing the necessary works, and other purposes of this Act.

7 It shall be lawful for the company from time to time to borrow on mortgage or bond such sum or sums of money as shall, from time to time, by an order of a general meeting of the company be authorized to be borrowed.

8. The said company and their servants shall have full power and authority to lay out, construct, make and finish a double or single iron railway at their own cost and charges, of such width or guage as they may deem advisable, from such point near, or with the consent of the Municipal Council, in the City of Victoria, and terminating at such one or two points at or near Esquimalt harbor, as the directors of the company for the time being may think most advantageous.

9. It the railway cross any road on a level, the company shall erect, and at all times maintain, good and sufficient gates across such road on each side of the railway where the road shall communicate therewith. Until such fences and cattle guards are duly made, the company shall be liable for all damage which may be done by their trains or engines to cattle, horses, or other animals on the railway. After the fences and guards are duly made and maintained, no such liability shall accrue for any such damage, unless negligently or wilfully done.

Clause 11 gives the company power to fix and regulate by means of by-laws, its tolls, etc.

13. Provided always that none of the provisions of this Act shall have any force or effect until the location of the Canada Pacific railway at or near Esquimalt, and until the Canada Pacific railway company shall, within — months after such location, have selected all the land in Esquimalt district which may be required for their undertaking, and the provisions of this Act shall be subject to such selections, and the acquirement within a reasonable time of such lands by the said Canada Pacific railway company.

Mr. Booth moved to strike out all the words after "effect," in second line, and insert a clause to following effect: "that this Act shall not take effect except the Canada Pacific railway shall not have fixed its Pacific terminus, up to 31st December, '74."

Mr. McCreight objected in a certain sense.

Hon. Mr. DeCosmos did not know why this Legislature should try to protect a purely speculative company—the Canada company. This company wants to build a line to Esquimalt, and he asked the House to strike out the provision; the next provision would protect the Canada Railway Company.

Mr. Barnston moved an amendment, provided this Act shall not take effect until the Canada Railway Company shall have selected a site for a terminus at Esquimalt, within a specific time.

Mr. Booth had no objection; it was similar to his own.

Mr. Booth's amendment passed.

14. Anything in this act contrary with the British North American Act, shall be void and of no effect, was struck out.

Mr. Booth would move that the assent of the Governor-General shall be had.

15. The Victoria and Esquimalt Railway shall be commenced within one year from such selection and acquisition by the Company, and public notification thereof in the B. C. Gazette, and a single line of Railway, extending from a point in or near to the city of Victoria to a point on or adjacent to Esquimalt Harbor shall be laid down within — years after the commencement of the said Railway.

A discussion arose upon the question as to the time to be allowed for the completion of the railway. Hon. members wished two years; some one year; and some six months.

Mr. Bunster urged that the Victoria terminus be located at the City of Victoria.

Hon. Chief Commissioner moved that the railway shall be completed within one year

Carried.

Hon. Chief Commissioner also moved that the act shall not come into force until assented to by the Governor-General of Canada.

Passed.

Title clause passed.

Preamble passed as follows:

Whereas, Thomas Lett Stahlschmidt, William Benjamin Pearse, George James Findlay and others have petitioned the Legislative Assembly for an Act of Incorporation to construct a railroad commencing in or near the City of Victoria and terminating at or near Esquimalt Harbor. And whereas it is expedient to grant the prayer of the said petition. Therefore Her Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Assembly of British Columbia, enacts as follows.

Bill was reported complete with amendments. Report adopted; read a third time and passed.

Mr Bunster objected to suspend the Standing Orders for third reading, but withdrew his objection.

VICTORIA COMPANY WATER BILL

was deferred a second reading.

Mr. Bunster strongly protested.

HOMESTEAD AMENDMENT BILL

came up for second reading.

Mr. Cogan moved the second reading, explaining its provisions, which the act itself will explain.

Mr. Robson supported the measure.

Hon. Mr. DeCosmos regarded the bill separate and distinct from the Homestead Act proper. He questioned whether it would be right to make it retrospective.

Read a second time and committed, Mr. Saul in the chair.

Clause 1. Section 11 of "The Homestead Ordinance, 1867," is hereby repealed, and in lieu thereof the following shall be read.—

"The following personal property shall be exempt from forced seizure, or sale by any process at law or in equity, or from any process in bankruptcy, that is to say; the goods and chattels of any debtor or bankrupt, at the option of such debtor or bankrupt, or if dead, of his personal representative, to the value of five hundred dollars, the same not being homestead property under the provisions of the said "Homestead Ordinance, 1867."

Mr. McCreight believed the bill would be very troublesome in its effects. People could never collect their debts if it became law.

Hon. Mr. DeCosmos replied that the objection would be met by the 10th clause of the Homestead Act.

Mr. Robson proposed a clause that the Act shall not apply until after the passing of the said Act.

Mr. Robson proposed it on the ground that it was against the interest of the poor man, as were several Acts which passed this session.

Mr. Holbrook coincided.

Hon Attorney General supported the bill; it was a bill in force in the States of America, Canada, and in substance in England by joint stock companies; it would tend to promote immigration.

Mr. McCreight again opposed the $500 exemption; the $150 already enacted was sufficient. He hoped the House would not go out of its way to pass the bill to protect fraud.

Hon. Mr. DeCosmos suggested to make it $350.

Mr. Holbrook moved that the committee rise.

Division taken and lost.

Mr. Robertson moved for $350.

Lost.

The clause passed as read, nine to six.

Hon. Mr. Armstrong's amendment also passed, and the bill was reported complete with amendments.

Report adopted

Mr. Robinson objected to suspend the Standing Orders to pass the bill reading. He afterwards withdrew his objection, and the bill passed a third reading.

BREEDING STOCK AMENDMENT BILL.

Mr. Saul moved the second reading of this bill, and very lucidly explained its provisions. He was sorry there was not more time to prepare a better bill, and asked for a generous consideration of the House in passing it.

Mr. Hughes opposed, and urged its withdrawal.

Mr. Smithe moved a six months hoist.

Mr. Bunster said the bill of last year is found satisfactory.

Mr. Mara stated he came from a stock raising country, too, and the bill was not required there.

Mr. Saul asked a fair vote on the question.

The second reading was carried—11 to 10.

Committed, Mr. Hunter in the chair.

Clause 1 proposed to repeal bill at present in force.

Some hon. members protested against repealing the old bill at the late hour of the evening (nearly midnight) to prepare a new bill.

Hon. Attorney General warmly supported the bill.

Mr. Barnston supported the measure.

A long discussion arose, which we are sorry we have no room for, considering it was now after midnight.

Mr. Smithe moved that the committee do rise. Carried, and the bill was thus killed.

THE WATER COMPANY'S BILL

"Dropped."

The House adjourned till 12:30, on Friday.

Theatre Royal.

Mr. G. B. Waldron's dramatic Company made their second appearance during this visit to us last night upon the stage of the Theatre Royal, producing the beautiful play, "The Stranger," which is one giving great scope for the development of finite talent; those who saw the impersonation of Mrs. Haller, one of the leading characters, last night, given by Miss Kate Denin, will bear us out in the assertion that her efforts were the finest witnessed for a very long time past, upon the Victoria stage, her versatility of acting and the "touches" with which she rendered the farewell scene caught the admiration of every one of the house. The attention of the audience was rivetted upon the two principal characters as they enacted this last scene, and at the fall of the curtain a perfect storm of applause burst forth as a mark of approbation. Mr. G. B. Waldron in the role of the Stranger excelled himself, which, from the way in which his brilliant and refined acting is always received here is equivalent to saying that in some parts of the play his rendition of the character was marvelously good and always attractive. We have not space to particularize the merits which are due to the several remaining characters. Mrs. Waldron as the Countess Winterson and Mrs. Crosbie as Charlotte, displayed a thorough knowledge of their respective parts which were favorably received, and Mr. Cox as Baron Steinford, Mr. Vinson as Solomon; W. G. Crosbie as Peter, and Messrs Barrowe, Cleaves and White in their allotted characters were all very good. The entertainment ended with a farce called The Rough Diamond, and if laughing is any sign of enjoyment, then we must say that this afterpiece alone well rewarded the audience for their visit to the Theatre, for Mrs. Waldron in the characted of Margery, and the ludicrous Mr. W. G. Crosbie as a country Cousin Joe made the tears of mirth run down the faces of the audience. The company is a decided acquisition to the city and last night the Theatre was well filled, but to-night we expect to see it overflowing.

The Mystery Partly Solved.

The mysterious finding of the dead body of a man under circumstances of suspicion, and which has for the last two or three days, created much excitement throughout the city, was yesterday in a measure accounted for. It appears that the police, in pushing their investigations on to the case, obtained information which led to the discovery in an Indian shanty on Store street, of a vest and coat, upon which blood is discernible, and other minor wearing apparel, which have been identified as the property of the dead man. The Indians were arrested on suspicion, and in the pants' pocket of one of them was found a small empty case of a No 7 Eley cartridge, such as used in a breech-loading revolver, a hair stud, a good knife with numerous blades, and of peculiar make, and a door key. The cartridge case upon being compared with other cartridges found in the dead man's trunk at the "Angel" hotel, was seen to exactly correspond in size, make, etc, with them, and would carry just such a bullet as would inflict a wound precisely similar to that on the deceased's forehead—a small, well defined, and without any material laceration. A new pistol was also found in the shanty, which would not probably have been the actual property of the Indian, inasmuch as he was anxious to sell it, and the cartridges in the deceased man's trunk are evidently intended for the pistol in question. The knife is one containing eight blades, and may or may not have been the property of the Indian; it is more probable, however, that the one produced in Court at the inquest on Tuesday belonged to the Indian, and the one found yesterday to the white man. There are three Indians and three klootchmen now under arrest, suspected of having some knowledge of the death of the unfortunate man; and no doubt evidence will be forthcoming at the inquest to-day at two o'clock which will place the public in possession of further facts with regard to this, to say the least of it, mysterious case. Drs. Davie and Matthews will proceed to make a post mortem examination of the body to-day, and will be prepared with the important evidence for which the inquest was adjourned on Tuesday last. Public opinion seems to be pretty evenly divided as to whether the unfortunate man was the victim of a fiendish plot, or whether he met with his death at his own hands and was afterwards plundered of any valuable which might have been found upon him; in either case, it is evident he has been robbed, but whether murdered for that purpose or not yet remains to be proved.

FROM BURRARD INLET.—The Steamer Grappler arrived down yesterday from Burrard Inlet confirming the sad news respecting the drowning of Captain Ella, and reports, that from the depth of the water and swiftness of the current, where the body is supposed to have gone down, but little hope is entertained of recovering the body. A Chinaman who saw the late Captain Ella saved his life by clinging to the canoe directly he found himself in the water, but the body of the Captain disappeared almost at once. The Grappler brings down the French bark Resolu laden with lumber and ready for sea, she also had several passengers on board, amongst them Captains Campbell, Rayner, Tonin, McKinnon and Macintosh.

FOR NEW WESTMINSTER.—The steamer Enterprise sailed yesterday morning for New Westminster at 7:30 o'clock, taking up mails freight and passengers, the following are the names of some of the passengers: Mrs. Ladner, Judge O'Reilly, Captain Jolly, Thomas, Spence, Munro, and Wells.

Cowichan Roads.

COWICHAN, Feb., 1873.

EDITOR STANDARD:—Would you have the kindness to insert a few lines in your columns of the Weekly to deny a statement made in the House a short time since by the hon. member for Cowichan when he said that the roads were made cheaper and better, and that more work was done for the money than if the contract system were in force. It is all humbug and bosh, as there was little or no work done for the money in South Cowichan; and what was done to pass as if done by a lot of hogs. From Harris' to the sawmill all that was done was to root up a few rotten stumps, and leave the sloughs or bog holes as the road makers found them, because it was too much work to fill them up after $500 had been granted for repairs. Now it is very little better; for one reason there is about $50 a mile smuggled away to start with from this road, and the rest is nearly eaten up with "bosses" and cooks. No. 1 "boss," $100 a month to boss a cook and about seven or eight men; no. 2 "boss" $75 a month and to boss a cook and six or eight men. This trail was cut at first for $75 a mile and a good deal of grading was done on it. Now it cannot be repaired by the Government men for $100 a mile. This is doing Government work with a caution; nearly $350 a month for bosses and cooks to look over about 16 men. It is high time the work was done by contract again, or else we will have to be paid a walk over the road for nothing at all next year.

NO PORTFOLIO.

GREAT BARGAINS.—By the steamer Prince Alfred, Messrs. TURNER, BERTON & TUNSTALL have received an invoice of goods from London, which have been bought much under market prices. They would call particular attention to a very large stock of Ecru and Black Yak Laces which are now the height of fashion in Europe. A very choice lot of Scotch Embroideries, a full assortment of Quilted Satin Shirts which are worn with Overskirts or Polonaise and are the general Costume in London and Paris this season. Also Roman Scarfs and Shawls, etc. The above goods are now offered at little over half the usual prices. T. B. T. have also received new designs in Carpets and Rugs, Patent Umbrellas, Down Quilts, Evening Flowers, etc., and a variety of other goods. *

In these dull times when various devices are resorted to in order to impart a little life to trade, THOS. WILSON & CO. will content themselves with announcing the arrival of some new things per Prince Alfred, consisting of:—Silks, Alpacas, Satteen-barges, Chalis, Delaines and other Dress Materials; also Collars, Ties, Bows, and a variety of other goods. T. W. & Co. leave all questions of prices, quality, fair-dealing, etc., to the judgment of those who favor them with their custom, and dispelling any real advantages of new ways of doing business adhere to that successfully followed by them for the last 12 years. *

NOTICE.—I take pleasure to inform Mr. E. Watson's former customers, and particularly the Officers of the Fleet, that I have done all his Watch and Chronometer work for the past four years. As he has left the country, I beg to solicit the direct patronage of his former customers. All watch and fine clock work done for him by me, under one year, will be guaranteed by me. Attention paid also to Letter and Seal Engraving, at moderate prices. G. W. A. LANGE, Yates street. *

Cheap Cures for Great Diseases.

HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT.

OLD SORES AND OLD SKIN DISEASES.

The seeds of these disorders are effectually expelled by this penetrating Unguent, not only from the superficial parts, but from the internal tissues likewise. Any case, even if of 20 years standing, speedily yields to its influence.

BRONCHITIS, DIPTHERIA, SORE THROAT, ASTHMA &c.

Rheumatism, and erysipelas may be overcome by frequently fomenting the affected parts in warm water, drying, and immediately applying this soothing Ointment. The same procedure applies equally well for curing sore throat, diptherria bronchitis, asthma, tightness of the chest, and pain in the side, which instant treatment alone prevents degenerating the more serious maladies. The Ointment has the same derivative powers over chest complaints as a blister possesses, without causing pain or debility.

HEMORRHOIDS—PILES, AND VRICKSSES

Thousands suffer severely for years from these annoying complaints through false delicacy. Let such purchase a pot of Holloway's Ointment, read the directions which accompany it, act upon them to the letter, and they will, without difficulty, succeed in obliterating every vestige of these harrassing ailments.

ACCIDENTAL INJURIES, INFANTILE AILMENTS

In cuts, bruises, sprains, burns, and scalds, it will be found cooling, sedative and healing. The part effected should be fomented in warm water, dried gently, and the Ointment should be instantly applied. This purifying Ointment may be safely used in all eruptions, chafings and other cutaneous affections to which children are liable.

BAD LEGS, BAD BREASTS, OLD SORES AND ULCERS.

By rubbing the Ointment round the affected parts, it penetrates to the tissues beneath, and exercises a wonderful power on all the blood flowing to, and returning from, the diseased part. The inflammation diminishes, the pain becomes less intolerable, the matter thicker, and a cure is soon effected. In all long standing cases, Holloway's Pills will thoroughly expel all depraved humors from the body.

GLANDULAR SWELLINGS, STIFF JOINTS.

This class of complaint yields without difficulty to the cooling and anti inflammatory properties of this famed Ointment. It should be well rubbed over the affected parts, after due fomentation with warm water. It acts by stimulating the absorbents to increased activity, restraining ulceration, and promoting a free and copious circulation in the parts affected, and hence speedily and effectually ensuring a cure.

GOUT, RHEUMATISM AND PARALYSIS.

Gout and Rheumatism arise from inflammation in the parts affected,—to effect a permanent cure, adopt a cooling diet, drink plenty of water, take six of these famous Pills night and morning, and rub the Ointment most effectually twice a day into the suffering parts, and a cure is certain. The paralytic patient should take about three Pills twice a week, and let the Ointment be well rubbed into the paralyzed limb which will, in a very little time, be greatly benefited—indeed many cures have been effected by this treatment.

ERUPTION ON THE SKIN.

In this class of complaints, no matter the age, the sex, or the place, or under what name, the disease may be classified, it may be cured if this Ointment be well rubbed into the system, and Holloway's Pills taken night and morning to purify the blood.

Both the Ointment and Pills should be used in the following cases:—

Bad Legs	Fistulas
Bad Breasts	Gout
Burns	Glandular Swellings
Bunions	Lumbago
Bite of Moschitoes and Sand-Flies.	Piles
Coco-bay	Rheumatism
Chiego-foot	Scalds
Chilblains	Sore Nipples
Chapped Hands	Sore-throats

A FRIEND IN NEED!

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS

WONDERFUL CURE OF ASTHMA OF 18 YEARS STANDING.

Copy of a Letter from Mr. Ferdinand McDevitt Innkeeper & Grocer, Glenties, Co. Donegal, dated 4th March, 1861.

To Professor Holloway,

Sir,—I suffered from asthma for 18 years, accompanied with great difficulty of breathing, and severe cough with spitting of blood. I was also afflicted with Piles. At different times I was treated by most skilful physicians, and was at length pronounced by them to be beyond cure;—as a last resource, I was induced to use your Pills and Ointment, and in the short space of a fortnight could walk about; and am now perfectly cured, to the astonishment of all who knew me.

BLOOD TO THE HEAD WITH GIDDINESS.

Copy of a letter from Mrs. Mary Foster, Half Moon Street, Totness, dated March 16th 1861.

To Professor Holloway.

Sir,—For many years I suffered periodically headache, and giddiness in the head, to such a degree that at times I have scarcely been able to walk; after obtaining the best medical advice without effect, I tried your Pills and in less than a week I was completely cured. Mrs. Donnel, Chemist, of Totness, can vouch for the truth of the above statement.

COMPLAINTS OF WOMEN AND CHILDREN.

The very mild and painless action of these invaluable Pills, recommends them to every household as a remedy for the early departures from health. Any mother, nurse, or young person guided by the direction which accompany each box of Holloway's Pills, has at once available means for checking disease, purifying the blood, and expelling from the system all gross humors. They are, indeed, at all ages, the tried females friend.

DISORDERS OF THE KIDNEYS & OTHER INTERNAL ORGANS

Loss of appetite and flatulency are usually the forerunners of stomachic disease. These famous Pills exercise the most salutary power in all affections of the liver, and irregularities of the stomach and bowels; they restore a healthy function to every internal organ, overcome all obstructions, and cast out all impurities.

THE ACTION OF THE KIDNEYS & OTHER INTERNAL ORGANS

The immediate loss of muscular strength and nervous energy is more particularly remarkable in renal than in most other diseases. Their deficient action for one day suffices to produce fever, hence the necessity for prompt and efficient treatment. Holloway's Pills have the great merit of restoring any suspended or diminished secretion, and of relieving any inflammation or congestion in the spleen, kidneys, or other subsidiary organs.

The tight, suffocating, anxious feeling caused by derangement of the heart, makes the sufferer look on present death as imminent. Holloway's Pills prove an efficient and ready remedy when the disturbed circulation depends on indigestion flatulency, or debilitated nervous vigor. Persons suffering from disturbance of the heart should take about six of these Pills two or three times a week, according to circumstances, to arrest the too active action of the heart.

WEAKNESS, LANGOUR AND DEBILITY.

These famous Pills will immediately remove all symptoms of debility, langour and weakness as they act upon the main springs of life, and thus save thousands from premature grave.

Holloway's Pills are the best remedy known to the world for the following diseases:—

Ague	Inflammation
Asthma	Jaundice
Bilious Complaints	Liver Complaints
Blotches on the Skin	Lumbago
Bowel Complaints	Piles
Colics	Rheumatism
Costipation of the Bowels	Retention of Urine
Consumption	Scrofula, or King's Evil
Debility	Sore Throats
Dropsy	Stone and Gravel
Dysentery	Secondary Symptoms
Erysipelas	Tic-Douloureux
Female Irregularities	Tumours
Fevers of all kinds	Ulcers
Fits	Venereal Affections
Gout	Worms of all kinds
Head-ache	Weakness, from what ever cause &c., &c.
Indigestion

Sold at the Establishment of PROFESSOR HOLLOWAY, 244 Strand, (near Temple Bar), London; also by all respectable Druggists and Dealers in Medicines throughout the civilized world.
